DANIEL RODRIGUEZ TENOR

CELEBRATING THE SPIRIT OF AMERICA

Daniel Rodriguez cemented himself in America's heart when he sang as a New York City police officer in the days following 9/11. His stirring, "God Bless America," uplifted an entire country. He, as the New York Times described it, "wrapped his arms around a grieving nation & dried its tears with his voice." Daniel grew up in the theater in New York City & made his Carnegie Hall debut at just 17 years old. Circumstances moved him out of music for a short time in his early 20s, but his desire to use his God-given talent compelled him back to the stage. Many people in the United States & around the world remember him as a uniformed police officer singing at Prayer for America. It was there that he caught the eye of a record executive at EMI/Capitol Records, New York. He went on to record his iconic version of God Bless America - all proceeds from that single benefitted The Twin Towers Fund & he was eventually offered a full recording contract. In the years that have followed, he has Performed all over the world. From the World Expo in Aichi, Japan, to the Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City. With appearances on The Late Show with David Letterman, The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, and Oprah. He has an extensive discography with EMI/Capitol Records & Blix Street Records. Daniel regularly sings in the major concert halls of New York & is a regular anthem singer at Madison Square Garden. Today, he sings all over the world, bringing his thrilling voice to the US & beyond. Daniel is a founding member of The New York Tenors & tours regularly with them.

Daniel will be doing a special performance at the Burbank Elks Lodge on Friday night.
